STEP 3: Apply for Financial Aid
Students must be current residents of Laurens County and have graduated from high school in the previous academic year or be early graduates in the spring or summer terms. Students must complete a FAFSA on time and use all federal, state, and other sources of financial aid first. Apply online at: www.fafsa.ed.gov

Please note that books, incidental supplies, and any program related fees will be your responsibility.

STEP 4: Complete Admission and Financial Aid Process
After all requirements have been met, the scholarship will be added to your account to cover all remaining tuition that isn’t covered by your financial aid package.
